

EXPLORING FOR THE FUTURE TECH SUMMIT SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

17 AUGUST 2022

The 2022 Queensland Exploration Council (QEC) Exploring for the Future Tech Summit (originally known as the QEC Technical Forum) will provide a platform for sharing the latest information and technology in the exploration field, and features presentations by highly regarded exploration industry experts.

This year's theme 'Exploring for the Future' takes a deep dive into topics covering critical minerals, hydrogen and findings from companies who received the Collaborative Exploration Initiative grants.

The forum will also feature two panel sessions with industry professionals from a range of diverse career backgrounds on 'How to make in the resources sector' and 'Emerging technologies for ever deeper exploration'.

There are a number of sponsorship opportunities available to QRC and QEC members. We welcome members to consider this exciting opportunity to position their brand at the forefront of exploration industry development in 2022.
